

AGM 2009 Help ACCA to help the environment

ACCA Hong Kong is committed to developing sustainable and environmentally-friendly processes and channels of communication. As a member, you can help actively support ACCA Hong Kong in this objective by opting to receive selected correspondence and publications in electronic format.

We would like to encourage members to access ACCA Hong Kong's AGM papers and resources online through our website instead of receiving them in paper format.

Previously members have already been invited to indicate if they would like to access ACCA head office's AGM papers online. If you have already opted to receive head office's AGM papers electronically, we would assume that you will also want to receive ACCA Hong Kong's AGM papers online instead of receiving them in paper format. However, if you still want to receive Hong Kong's AGM papers in paper format, please complete and return the form below by 31 March.

Any other Hong Kong members who now wish to access the 2009 AGM papers of ACCA Hong Kong online, please indicate this by completing and returning this form by email to info@hk.accaglobal.com or by fax to: 2868 4909 also by 31 March.

We will automatically inform you by email when the papers are available, therefore, please ensure we hold your current e-mail address. You can update your details via myACCA.
