Approved Learning Partner – Student Tuition programme

High-quality tuition is integral to ACCA's growth and reputation strategies. As an organisation, ACCA does everything it can to signpost quality tuition to students. The Approved Learning Partner – Student Tuition programme, launched in September, which replaces the existing University and College Registration Scheme (UCRS), is a formal recognition of the quality tuition and support that leading tuition providers offer to ACCA students globally. It is the platform from which ACCA will develop a mutually-beneficial relationship with tuition providers, increasing the availability of effective and innovative ACCA course delivery and first-class student support.

Updated information on list of tuition providers on the new programme will soon be available on the web. You may also contact the tuition providers currently listed for details of courses.

ACCA Offices in Mainland China

ACCA is the first international accountancy body to tap into the China market. In 1989, there were just 30 ACCA students in mainland China. Today, there are more than 2,600 ACCA members and 15,000 students, many of them have moved beyond the mainstream of accounting to become an all-rounded senior finance profession in the employment market.

ACCA now is working with 34 local universities and institutions and training centres to provide tuition support for ACCA students and has established 20 examination centres in 12 major Mainland cities. Our representative offices are located in Beijing, Guangzhou and Shanghai. Students can take ACCA exams at examination centres in mainland China that are convenient to them. ACCA also offers help and assistance to members in need.
