ACCA is pleased to collaborate with BPP Learning Media to introduce the free Home Online Study Guide to which all ACCA students are entitled.

Using the Home Study Guide

The Study Guide splits the syllabus of all ACCA papers into manageable study sessions designed to help you through the BPP study text. It is made up of 20 study Periods, with each consisting of the following elements:

Step 1	Exam Guidance	This gives you an introduction to each study period by explaining the examiner's review with reference to the pilot papers and pass exams.
Step 2	Introduction to the session	You will be introduced to the main issues that you should understand when you have finished your study.
Step 3	Guidance through the BPP study text	This provides you with important instruction on how to work through the BPP Study Text. You will be told which areas of each chapter must be worked through in detail and which can be skimmed over. It contains key points, summarizing the most vital areas of the study period.
Step 4	Question Practice	Get ready to test your understanding and application skills.
Step 5	The Big Picture	Revisit the Big Picture as directed to see how what you have studied fits into the overall syllabus.

* Up to 4 ACCA papers can be chosen for each exam diet.

for the ACCA examinations. Study Companion Group will be formed three months before the examination sessions. In respect to the December 2009 examination diet, a briefing session will be held on 9 September, 2009 (Wednesday) and students attempting the same paper will be assigned into the same group

If you are interested in joining a Study Companion Group, please complete and return the enclosed enrolment form to ACCA Hong Kong on or before 27 August. ■
